THE GREAT CHRISTMAS ISSUE

OF THE SUNDAY WORLD

TO - MORROW.

52 PAGES. ILLUMINATED GOVER.

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1893,

THE GREAT CHRISTMAS NUMBER of THE SUNDAY WORLD

BY AN ARMED FORGE.

So Only Could Queen Lil Be Restored to Her Throne.

Hawalian Gazette's Declaration and Appeal to Patriotism.

All Quiet at Honolulu Up to the 24th of November.

AUCKLAND, New Zeland, Dec. 9.-The mer Monowai has arrived here. She left Honolulu on Nov. 24. All was quiet

The news that President Cleveland in ots of people on the streets and was rumor was published in the Honolulu rs that the Queen was not willing

The Hawalian Gazette of Nov. 24 says:

sue than ever before. Let every rece overruling the affairs of men, so surely will the gross outrage proposed BAYARD ON HAWAIIAN POLICY. Mr. Cleveland's Dealing Based on Justice and Humanity.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Dec. 9.—A representative of the Associated Press showed to United States Ambassador Bayard to-day the pecial despatch to the Associated Press from Auckland. Mr. Bayard read it with great interest and then said: President Cleveland will deal with the reak Hawaiians in the most magnanious manner and will not force upon em a government which they have ot had a full chance to discuss."

Regarding despatches published in The Times and Standard to-day, indicating that President Cleveland is about to reverse his Hawaiian policy, and that new instructions to this effect have been sent to Hawaii, adding that the whole question would be sent to Congress, Mr.

There can be no reversal of a policy based simply upon justice and magna nimity. President Cleveland's policy is Jail. tention of entering the Island and depos-

"The policy of the United States tothe contrary, President Cleveland's intention is that no advantage shall be taken of the weakness of the Queen's party, and that the Queen shall have a full and fair chance to get on her feet,

"Hawaiian native autonomy has been so enfeebled by late events that I hardly know whether the Hawaiians can avail themselves of the offer of the President to restore the Queen to the

The Associated Press representative a Liverpool has been informed that Mr. T. H. Davis, the guardian of the Prina Katulant, is now in Hawaii, and The latest news received by a representative of Mr. Davis, in this country, confirms the special despatch to the Associated Press from Auckland.

ALARMED BY CHOLERA.

Sinister Reports from Constantinople and Teneriffe.

LONDON, Dec. 9.—Another despatch to The Standard says cholera has assumed dangerous proportions at Constantinople, and that the Greeks there complain bitterly of the inhumanity of the Turkish

The Daily News says that the captain of a steamer, which has arrived at Plymouth from Teneriffe, reports that. owing to the cholera epidemic which prethere all visitors are leaving the island, and the natives are greatly

GLADSTONE IS BETTER.

Grand Old Man Well Enough to Start for Brighton. (By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Dec. 9.-Mr. Gladstone much better to-day, and will, it is ex-pected, be able to proceed to Brighton this afternoon.

Baron

The settlement of the order of the General Term. The settlement of the order of the General Term was such as to make an appeal possible.

Baron von Butler to Represent Wurtemburg at Berlin.

LONDON, Dec. 9.—A Standard de patch from Berlin says that The Post states that Baron von Butler will sucster at Berlin. Herr Moser as Wurtemburg Min-

Starting Shaft Disabled As She Passed the Bar To-Day.

The North-German Lloyd steamer Frave, hence for Bremen, cleared the bar at 10.30 this morning.

At 11.15 she came to anchor outside the bar and signalled that her starting shaft was out of order.

The Trave had on board $500,000 in gold. It was shipped by Heidelbach, ckelheimer & Co., to the Bank of Germany at Bremen.

UMBRIA LOSES A PASSENGER.

A Swede, Who Sailed from This Port, Jumps Overboard.

(By Associated Press.)
LIVERPOOL, Dec. 9.—Gustave Anderson, a Swedish passenger, jumped overboard from the steamship Umbria yesterday and was drowned, although the steamship was stopped and boats owered to rescue the drowning man. The body was not recovered. The Umbria left New York Dec. 2 for this

SILVIA THORNE IN COURT. Landlord Bangs Withholds Her Trunks for Board.

Mrs. Gertrude Tuthill, wife of Theatrical Manager Ben Tuthill, and known to the stage as Silvia Thorne, was a complainant in Jefferson Market Court this morning against Henry J. Bangs, the proprietor of the Sturtevant House, Mrs. Tuthiil claims that Proprietor

Mrs. Tuthill claims that Proprietor Bangs is holding her trunks illegally. She and her husband separated last week. Tuthill went away to increase the size of the family pocketbook, and his wife went to live with her mother. Mrs. Titus.

A day or two ago, when Mrs. Tuthill left to rejoin her husband in a boarding-house, Mr. Bangs refused to release her trunks. He contended that the hotel law gave him the right to hold the goods.

goods.

The examination in the case was adjourned until next Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Bangs was advised by Justice Koch, however, that he would probably have to release the baggage.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuthill engaged rooms and board by the week and therefore their transaction came under the boarding-house regulations.

CORARO AFTER HIS FEE.

Get an Order for Mira Ryan's Money.

Lawyer Francis Coraro this morning applied for an order from Justice Bart-lett, in the Supreme Court, to compel Property Clerk Powell, of the Police Deartment, Brooklyn, to return $250 to Miss Josephine Ryan, of 45 Willoughby street.

Miss Ryan was arrested a few days ago on suspicion of having stolen $400 from an unknown politician.

She first agreed to retain Lawyer Max Klein to defend her for $100, but later engaged Lawyer Coraro for $25.

A bitter controversy was begun between Klein and Coraro to get control of the money in the hands of the Property Clerk to satisfy their claims for fees.

Justice Bartlett told Coraro to apply fees.

Justice Bartlett told Coraro to apply to Justice Walsh for an order for the money, and if Judge Walsh refused he could apply for a writ of mandamus compelling him to do so.

MISTAKE LED TO PRISON.

Order Was for Her Brother.

Miss Delia, Cunningham, a hand some brunette, twenty-eight years of age, is a prisoner at the Ludlow Street She keeps a boarding-house at 522 Ninth avenue. Her brother used to seep a liquor store near the West Shore Ferry in Forty-second street. His sister says he attended the races too much and falled in business.

David M. Koeghler, a brewer, had a bill against him for $251.30. Judge Giegerich granted a third party order for Miss Cunningham's examination regarding her brother's property. bill against him for $251.30. Judge Gieg-erich granted a third party order for Miss Cunningham's examination regard-ing her brother's property. She thought the order was a communi-cation for her brother, and laid it aside. Her arrest followed.

WILL SUE BANK DIRECTORS.

Receiver of the Defunct Commercial Granted an Order.

Justice Bartlett, of the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, htis morning issued an order permitting Receiver Dykman to sue Seth L. Keeney, Albert Snedecker, George Malcom, Rufus Ressigue, James Locke, Robinson Gill, George Wilson, W. Binns and John H. Rowland, David W. Binns and John H. Rowland, as di-rectors of the defunct Commercial Bank The action will be brought on the grounds that the directors issued, it is alleged, dividends amounting to about $12,000 in June, 1892, and June, 1893, ou of the capital stock of the bank, in stead of from its earnings.

THREE DEATHS FROM GRIP.

Europe's Unwelcome Visitor and Diphtheria Are Spreading Here. According to the report of the Board of Health, the "grip" was responsible for three deaths which occurred in the city during the week. Only one fatal case was reported last week.

A large increase in diphtheria is also reported. There were 197 cases during the week, as against sixty-three for the corresponding week last year. Of the number reported, one-third proved fatal.

GARDNER CASE TO BE APPEALED.

The Ex-Parkhurst Agent May Have to Make Another Fight.

Assistant District-Attorney Battle to of the General Term releasing Charles W. Gardner, former Superintendent of Late Prof. Tyndall Burled To-Day at Haslemere.

(By Associated Press,) LONDON, Dec. 9 .- The funeral of the late Prof. Tyndail took place at Hasiemere to-day, and was attended by many

SHE'S MRS.ELKINGTON

"Mr. and Mrs. Newman."

With Her Children She Eloped with Actor Valentine Henry.

The English Runaways Now at 687 wife of William Elkington, of Shoreham, Mr. and Mrs. Henry on the top floor of the house 687 Second avenue. With them are Elaine and Launcelot Elkington. two as pretty children as one would see anent the arrival in this country about Nov. 1 of an actor named Henry James and a woman whose name could not be learned, owing to the refusal of the the Immigration Commissioners of an in highly respectable circles in Shoreham. Detective Groden, of the Barge Office, failed to locate the missing group To-day they were all found by an home.

"It was then we fell in love with eac other and determined upon the step w have taken. We made our plans to come to America, where I thought could get plenty of engagements. M professional name is Valentine Henry and I have appeared at Huber & Geshardt's Casino in Brooklyn. This weel however, and next I am engaged at the Battery Park Concert Gardens. I hat to do that for we needed money.
"I expect to appear at Huber's Mu.".

said:
"I had nothing against my husband only I met a man I loved better. He says he wants our children. Well, he may take them. He could have had them before, for he knew we were in New York. I wrote to a mutual friend of ours in England that we were living in New York as Mr. and Mrs. Henry.
"I married Mr. Elkington nine years ago. My maiden name is Turnerelli, and my father is a retired gentleman, Tracy Tournelli, of Leamington, Warwickshire, England.

At this point the boy, Launcelot, turdy, blue-eyed lad, drew away infantile glee;

"Oh, mamma! Lancy is crying."
It was a truly touching sight, buneither the mother nor her lover paid the slightest heed to it.

ALL-NIGHT SALOONS NEXT.

Dr. Parkhurst Proposes to Train His Guns on Such Resorts.

Dr. Parkhurst will in a few days train his guns on the all-night saloons. He proposes to learn why certain saloons are ermitted to remain open all night in defining of the law, Dr. Parkhurst states that when he asked the women who called at his house since the eviction from the Tenderloin where they had spent the night they invariably repiled "In saloons." He says they recked with beer and whiskey.

NO EXTRA CHARGE for BOARDERS WANTED

ADVTS. in

The World's

great Christmas Issui TO-MORROW.

Evening World" Reporter Finds

Second Avenue.

Valentine Henry, an English music nall singer, and Mrs. William Elkington, sussex, England, and living together as respectively six and eight years old, and in a day's journey. This prosaic paragraph explains the story published in the morning papers discovered, and his companion was no less autonished.

Clippings of the stories published in the omrning papers were handed to Henry and as he read them his hands trembled, his face flushed scariet and he broke out into exclamations of surprise. Then as he finished he calmly remarked:
"That is about true in every respect. What is there to be done about it?"
It was suggested that he tell the story to do that for we needed money.

"I expect to appear at Huber's Museum, in this city, and also at the Imperial Music Hall."

Here the man who robbed his friend of his wife and his children laughed goisterously, and was unable to continue the story. He evidently regarded it as a huge joke.

Mrs. Elkington, who stood at the foot of the bed, picked up the narrative, and in a refined, gently modulated voice, said:

England.
"Why. Eikington himself corded and strapped my trunks when I left home, he thinking as I was going to my father in Leamington, as I told him."
Being asked if she would surrender her children and continue to live in this country alone with Harny Mrs. Eikington replied without the slightest feeling:
"Oh, yes. I love Mr. Henry enough to do that."

At this point the boy, Launcelot, a sturdy, blue-eyed lad, drew away from his mother's side and went to a window with his face buried in his chubby hands. The little fellow had a realization of the situation and his eyes bubbled over with the tears and he sobbed as if his little heart would break.

Dainty little Elaine, his golden-haired sister, who sat on the bed, exclaimed in infantile glee:

"Oh, mamma! Lancy is cryine" five years old, a son of the John Winthrop Chanier. He was graduated from Harvard when twenty-one years old, and went immediately to Africa. With a small caravan of Zanzibaris at his back, he marched through Masailand, and was the first civilized man to make complete circuit of Kilima-Njaro. relate to, was the largest ever organized started for the African Interior in June, Mr. John Armstrong Chanler, brother of William Astor Chanler, was out of troops to Roby was simply to the city to-day when an "Evening military companies in several Northern World" reporter called at his office, 120 Indiana towns to be prepared to march His law partner, Mr. J. S. Gordon, very remote point, further than a white man had ever reached, and that he was going to push on.

The letter was sent back to a mailing point by a messenger. At the time of receiving this letter John Armstrong Chanler said he didn't expect to hear from his brother again for a year.

THIS HAS BEEN A WEEK OF HARD TIMES.

And It Hits Hardest Among the Magnates.

CHANLER STRANDED. TALK ABOUT THE PRESIDENT. SAYS HE HAS NINE WIVES. TORTURED BY

Explorer in Africa.

His Expedition Near Mount Kenia and Out of Supplies.

Animals Carrying His Stores Killed by Some Sort of Plague.

LONDON, Dec. 9.-The Royal Geographical Society has received news from the expedition headed by the American explorer, W. Astor Chanler, who is bound for Mount Kenia, in order to try mountain in Equatorial Africa.

expedition is stranded at Dhaicho, a few latest story concerning the President. miles north of the equator, and not very far from the northeast of Mount Kenia. Mr. Chanler was waiting for porters, were absolutely without foundation, and donkeys and goods to arrive from the that neither he nor Dr. Lewis ever ascoast. His messengers had been gone sisted at any operation on Mr. Clevefour months up to the time of the ada plague. On Sept. 20 last Chanler had chasing improved surgical appliances: lost 150 donkeys and fifteen camels.

William Astor Chanler is about twenty- made for surgical implements.

The expedition which the above advices from the explorer about a month ago.

Another Operation.

tioned Deny It. Rumors are flying about town that on the occasion of President Cleveland's another operation on his jaw. It is said that Drs. Joseph D. Bryant, Albert H. Buck, Robert Lewis, jr., and Dentist K. C. Gibson were the operators. The story goes that Dentist Gibson re-away a quantity of bone, Three of the four men of medicine reporter this morning. Dr. Lewis is ill, The advices state that the American ny that there is a word of truth in the Dr. Bryant said that the report was Dr. Buck declared that the reports land's jaw. Dentist Gibson declared that he never vices, and it is doubted if the necessary pulled a tooth for President Cleveland, supplies will ever reach the Chanler ex- and never expects to. Neither does he administer anaesthetics.

Dr. Gibson said he knew that Dr. The animals carrying the stores of the Bryant was in Washington on Monday. expedition perished from some kind of but was there for the purpose of pur-Dr. Bryant is Surgeon-General of this State, and an appropriation was recently TROOPS ORDERED TO ROBY. An Elkhart Company Instructed to Be There To-Morrow.

ELKHART, Ind., Dec. 9.-Company H. of the Third Indiana Regiment, located at this place, received orders to meet INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 9.-The State Adjutant-General says that all that had been done regarding the sending of to Roby at any time, in case they were required. Gov. Matthews has gone to Washington. Charles Place Assigns. Charles Piace, who sells machinery on commision, under the name of the New York Machinery rested for Assault. But Dr. Bryant and the Others Men- He Denies that He Wedded More

Than One Woman.

William R. Davis, thirty-two years old, last visit to town he had to submit to as cabinet repairer at the Columbia Eighth avenue, was arraigned in Yorkville Police Court this morning on a complaint of assault preferred by a woman moved two of the President's teeth, and calls herself Ann Davis. She lives with then Surgeons Lewis and Buck cut her mother, Ellen Bergen, at 562 West Fifty-fifth street. Davis is a weak, puny little man, but he says he is not afraid of the women. Court Officer Beller has been looking for some time.

On Oct. 12 Mrs. Davis appeared in court with her eye blackened and her face terribly bruised. She was in company with her mother, and secured a war-rant for Exvise arrest. She then said, and reiterated her story to-day, that Davis, on Dec. 2, 1891, slipped a ring on her finger and then declared that she was his wife. After that they lived to gether occasionally, notwithstanding the fact that she knew, she alleges, he had other wives.

Early in the month of October she said that Davis brought to her a woman named Mrs. Casey, who lives in Fifty-sixth street, near Tenth avenue, and wanted her to consent to allow Mrs. Casey to perform a criminal operation. She said that Mrs. Casey was wife No. 3.

On her refusal, she said, Davis beat her with his fists and kicked her into insensibility.

Davis says he was only legally married. Davis for some time.

Staten Island's Wealthy Oysterman Passes Away. TOTTENVILLE, S. I. Dec. 9.-Capt.

Abram Latourette, the wealthy oyster-man who a few weeks ago was declared to be of unsound mind, is dead, Clared to be of unsound mind, is dead.

The Dr. Krappy Hernia institute, 30 West 30th st., New York, with mail to any address, free of charge, their pamphlet on Radical and quick Cure of Rupture without Operation. Ea 21 yrs.

Bad News of the Young American It Is Said He Has Submitted to Mrs. Davis Has William R. Ar- Lydia Savage Says a Hot Iron Was Thrust Into Her Mouth.

> She Lisps Her Story to the Justice was killed outright by the explosion. and Shows the Scars.

Mrs. Emerson, the Accused Woman, Held for Trial.

Little eight-year-old Lydia Savage, a colored child who lived with Mrs. Lizzle Emerson, at 236 East Ninety-seventh street, told a story in Harlem Police Court this morning of having been punished with fire, that was made more credible by scars and blisters she showed the Justice.

said that Davis brought to her a woman named Mrs. Casey, who lives in Fifty sixth street, near Tenth avenue, and wanted her to consent to allow Mrs. Casey to perform a criminal operation. She said that Mrs. Casey was wife No. 3. On her refusal, she said, Davis beat her with his fists and kicked her no. 3. On her refusal, she said, Davis beat her with his fists and kicked her not one woman, and she is wife No. 1. Her maiden name was Kate Netterville. He married her in St. Ann's Church eleven years ago, and the fruits of their marriage were five children. He denied that he went through a ceremony with eleven women.

The alleged wife No. 2 gave the names of some of the other wives. She said they were all living and she would produce them if so desired.

The hearing was then adjourned until Monlay afternoon to enable her to get some of Davits alleged wives in court. The said that his wife No. 2 may be a finance Asylum. She regained her liberty two months ago.

CAPT. LATOURETTE DEAD.

Staten Island's Wealthy Oysterman set the street of the arrest of Mrs. Emerson dimitted an serial day. He among the street of the chands arms and secured and sugar, and then heard a story since the kinds and secured and sugar, and then heard a story in the heard and sugar, and then heard a story with the heard and sugar, and then heard a story in the heard and sugar, and then heard a story in the heard and sugar, and then heard a story in the heard and sugar, and then heard a story in the heard and sugar, and then heard a story in the heard and sugar, and then heard a story in the sent on her hands, arms and tongue.

CAPT. LATOURETTE DEAD.

Staten Island's Wealthy Oysterman set the street of the change here with her many sugar the state of the case yesterday. He may be a state of the case yesterday. He may be a state of the case yesterday. He may be a state of the case yesterday. He may be a state of the case yesterday. He may be a street of the case yesterday. He may be a state of the case yesterday. He may be a street of the case yes irst burned of the case yesterday. He note in investigation and secured a surrant for the arrest of Mrs. Emerson. In court Mrs. Emerson admitted that he often punished the child. She said owever, that Lydia received the burns on her hands by falling on the stove and he burns on her tongue from hot poatoes she stole and concealed in her mouth.

Sanday aftersoon: warner, failowed by colder during Sanday eight. The tollowing record shows the changes in the temperature during the mounting hears as indicated by the thermometer at Perry spharmacy; 3 A. M. 23/8 A. M. 22/8 A. M. 22/8

Local News in Brief. LOCAL News in Brief.

James Sullivan, thirty, of 11s Cherry street, was aken to Gouverneur Respital from his home at an ideal, suffering from a stab wound in his left lide, inflicted by an unknown man.

An ideal of the self legs broken, and Comrade sustained fatalistic inflicted by an unknown man.

BOMB IN THE FRENCH CHAMBER.

Its Explosion Said to Have Badly Wounded Several Deputies.

POLICE HOLD BACK DETAILS.

Missile Thrown from the Gallery at Almost Exactly 4 O'Clock.

NEWSPAPER

Intense Excitement and Conflicting Rumors in

PARIS, Dec. 9.-A bomb was exploded

The Chamber was in session, but the proceedings being very uninteresting the galleries were not crowded with peoort of a bomb fell into the midst of the ssembled Deputies, causing a loud exolosion and a scene of the greatest conplosion closed all the doors of the Champer of Deputies and refuse dto allow

First reports had it that one of the Deputies, supposed to be Le Myre de Villers, Socialist, and one of the attendants were killed, and that a number of others were wounded. The explosion and the conficting reports in the circulation caused the greatest excitement throughout Paris, and full details were anxiously awaited. At 5.30 P. M. the police were still withholding details of the explosion, and were much criticised for so doing.

It was stated, however, that nobody it exploded these missiles were thrown with the greatest force in all directions.

Among the Deputies mentioned as being seriously wounded is M. Dumas. Deputy from Allier. It is said that the bomb seemed to be filled with shot or slugs, and that when reaching even as high as the galleries where a number of spectators are said to have been wounded. M. Berton Traibin, a newspaper man, who was on the floor of the Chamber, was badly wounded in the forehead. Her words were lisped slowly, could At 5.40 P. M., it was announced that On Oct. 12 Mrs. Davis appeared in court scarcely be understood at times, and the police had made several arrests

(By Associated Press.) SHELTON, Coun., Dec. 9.—White coasting last